THE Sandyford
 HOTEL

The Sandyford Hotel enjoys a superbly convenient location in the West End of Glasgow's famous Sauchiehall Street. Within easy waking distance is a host of Glasgow's major attractions, covering the full spectrum of tastes and interest.

Kelvingrove Park and Glasgow University

For culture lovers, there is the Art Gallery and Museum in Kelvingrove Park, the Hunterian Museum in Glasgow University, and the McLellan Gallery just further along Sauchiehall Street.

For sports buffs, there is Scotland's only Indoor International Athletics venue at the Kelvin Hall, or you can go for a strike at the Hollywood Bowl.

For music lovers and exhibition goers, there is the SECC, Scotland's major exhibition complex and live concert venue, and the Royal Concert Hall.

For real convenience the Glasgow City Bus Tour picks up right outside the hotel.

The hotel has been extensively refurbished, in the "McMillan Style" - simple and friendly rooms that feature polished pine floors and pine furniture. The breakfast room, with pine beams, matching tables and stone floor, complements the feature brickwork. The hotel boasts 45 individually styled bedrooms, all with en-suite bathroom, direct dial telephone, colour television and complimentary tea making facilities.

Our excellent value-for-money rates at only £24pppn, including full Scottish breakfast. Our superb location means that a full range of eateries to suit all tastes and pockets are only a short walk away.

For a city centre stay that's 'Interestingly Different'; the interesting located Sandyford Hotel is the place to be.
